Complete the Identification Labels and Entry Form printed on this page. Securely attach an Identification Label to the back of each entry. The Entry Form must be completed, signed, and delivered to the museum with the entries. Do not attach the entry form to the work of art. Indicate if the object is for sale. All inquiries about sales will be directed to AKMA Information Desk. AKMA receives a 30% commission on all work sold. Artworks must be hand-delivered to the museum. See drop-off date schedule.

Please note that the entry forms are used to create the wall labels for the artworks. Therefore, it is necessary that you be thorough in filling out the requested information—especially with media and processes. While the media may be obvious when you view the piece, we are not looking at the artworks when preparing the labels. In the case of certain categories (such as ceramics, photography, and printmaking) where process is more important, please write these down. (For example: with ceramics is it porcelain, hand-built, coiled, etc.; with photography is it digital, 35mm, computer manipulated, sepia, silver gelatin, etc.; with printmaking is it etching, solar print, monoprint, etc.)
